VOLUME 19 ISSUE 4

DECEMBER 2017

From The Editor

As usual there is a lot happening in Auchenblae during the festive season. There should be something for everyone. I hope that the weather will be kind so that we are able to get together, and are not confined to home. I have recently had to stay home for quite a long period and was definitely suffering from cabin fever.

I will start collecting for the next issue in mid February. Where has this year gone? A Happy Christmas and prosperous New year to you all.

Auchenblae Guild

We are approaching what, for me, is one of the most enjoyable evenings of the year. Quite a few years ago now the Guild decided that we would hold an evening of carols, candles and Christmas pies on the approach of Christmas. All these years later it is still a really enjoyable evening and we welcome more people to it every year. The Church looks beautiful, lit by candlelight. We are all able to have a goods sing of favourite carols and there is fellowship afterwards with refreshments. We hope to see many of you there, in Church, on Friday 8th December at 7.00pm for 7.30pm.

We have had some very interesting speakers at our regular meetings, and have learned about the Carib people of Dominica, and about the work of the Soroptimists, both at home and overseas. Our next meeting on Wednesday 13th December will be our Christmas lunch, held this year at the Sauchieburn and our January meeting will be our winter lunch. I promise you that we do do other things as well as eating. Do come and join us and find out more about us. The Guild is so much more than a lot of wifes and loons bletherin'

Auchenblae Friendship Group

"I believe in friendship at first sight".

We are a mixed bunch of people in the Friendship Group, but there is one thing that we all have in common. We really enjoy getting together once a week for fellowship and to be entertained. Between us we enjoy a wide range of activities. The main thing is we are there for each other.

It is important that we meet with other people. We must not sit at home and mope all day, every day. At our last meeting someone came to tell us about Clan, the cancer drop in centre in Aberdeen. That evening I received an email from her thanking us for having her and saying that she really enjoyed the morning with such lovely people. Come along and be one of the "lovely people", on Wednesday mornings in the Church hall. Phone Barbara on 320911 for more details. We are always ready to welcome new members.

A Happy Christmas to all of you from all of us.

"We cannot really love anybody with whom we never laugh"

AUTUMN SONG

Along the tired creaking bough,
The song of autumn the wind is strumming now!
The scent of the maple, the sweetness of the beech,
Nature's symphony of colour to their autumn skies reach.

Season's colours blaze their glory,
Creaking boughs speak their autumn story;
The Mearns wears her cloak of many colours,
A landscape adorned with shades of vibrant colour.

Did you know?

1. US scientists calculated that Santa would have to visit 822 homes a second to deliver all the world's presents on Christmas Eve, travelling at 650 miles a second.
2. ROBINS on cards were a joke 150 years ago when postmen wore red tunics and were named after them.
3. Although now mostly vegetarian, in Victorian times, mince pies were made with beef and spices.
4. The tradition of putting tangerines in stockings comes from 12th-century French nuns who left socks full of fruit, nuts and tangerines at the houses of the poor.
5. Despite the tale of three wise men paying homage to baby Jesus, the Bible never gives a number. Matthew's Gospel refers to merely "wise men".
6. Carols began as an old English custom called wassailing, toasting neighbours to a long life.
7. Carols weren't sung in churches until they were introduced by St Francis of Assisi in the 13th century.
8. Hanging stockings out comes from the Dutch custom of leaving shoes packed with food for St Nicholas's donkeys. He would leave small gifts in return.
9. There is no reference to angels singing anywhere in the Bible.
10. Nearly 60 million Christmas trees are grown each year in Europe.
11. The word Noel derives from the French expression "les bonnes nouvelles" or "the good news".
12. The abbreviation Xmas isn't irreligious. The letter X is a Greek abbreviation for Christ.

Carols, Candles and Christmas Pies

To welcome the arrival of Advent and the Joy of the Christmas Season, our annual Carols, Candles and Christmas Pies evening will be held in Auchenblae Church on Friday 8th December.

This is a family service and everyone is warmly invited to come along and join in the singing of our favourite carols, in the ambient light of flickering candles. You may notice something new this year!

As well as a short selection from the Bell Ringers, an accomplished group of local musicians, including Brian our minister, will add to the enjoyment of the evening.

Don't worry; there will still be time for lots of singing ourselves to the wonderful accompaniment of our organist, Helen.

After the service, Mulled Wine, Mince Pies, Shortbread and Teas will be served by the ladies of Auchenblae Guild.

Local transport can be arranged by calling 320245.

Doors open at 7pm with singing starting at 7.30 pm. Come early to soak up the atmosphere.

Merry Christmas

West Mearns Parish Church

A group of children were asked to describe love. Various opinions were offered. Billy, aged 4 said, "When someone loves you, the way they say your name is different. You just know that your name is safe in their mouth." Rebecca, aged 8 said, "When my grandmother got arthritis, she couldn't bend over and paint her toenails anymore. So my grandfather does it for her all the time, even when his hands got arthritis too. That's love." However, the one that caught my attention was Bobby, aged 7, who said "Love is what's in the room with you at Christmas if you stop opening presents and listen."

It is that time of the year again. Apparently, Black Friday in the UK alone, is expected to see £2.5 billion in sales and then the shopping starts. Whilst all that is good and well, Christmas invites us to think about our world in a different way for a while. Christmas invites us to think about being a better person for someone else. Next time you look in the mirror, will you notice that YOU are probably the best gift given. A person who loves is better than anything wrapped.

For the Church, Christmas is less about presents and more about a person. Christmas is the time that we celebrate Jesus Christ, born in a cattle trough, celebrated by wise men from the east, pondered by Shepherds from the fields, caused anxiety for the King of Judea and proclaimed by the Angels. It is a good time.

Consider coming along to celebrate, it would be lovely to welcome you.
